

Facing new challenges: Inclusion and global mindsets

Keld Hosbond

RAMA

Pressure for high level of internationalisation

Pressure for income (tuition)

Pressure for C.S.R.

Higher Music Education 2013

Students with global requests

Including multicultural students

Responses

- Strategies focusing on
 - High mobility flows
 - Income generating activities / non-EU regular students
 - C.S.R. initiatives
 - Strategic partnerships to be stronger in the storm!

RAMA responses

- GLOMUS / participation in Culture Programmes in Africa and Asia
www.glomus.net
- JSP GLOMAS www.glomas.net
- Music Course GLOBAL

RAMA responses

- Intensive networking: locally, regionally, internationally
- E-learning strategy – new ways of inclusion (and income tool??)
- Increase in number of tuition fee paying students
- Support for other inclusive initiatives: e.g. Girl Power in Jazz IP

Challenges

- Recognition for outgoing global students
- Integration of incoming students
- Languages
- Housing
- Cost of living!
- Are we ready to face the new reality with lots of tuition fee paying students?
 - Service, web, economy, intercultural competences