

× SIBELIUS
AKADEMIA
TAIDEYLIOPISTO

SIBELIUS ACADEMY

Nordplusmusic-
meeting 2016 in Helsinki, Finland

Tuovi Martinsen
Head of International Relations

Helsinki Music Centre

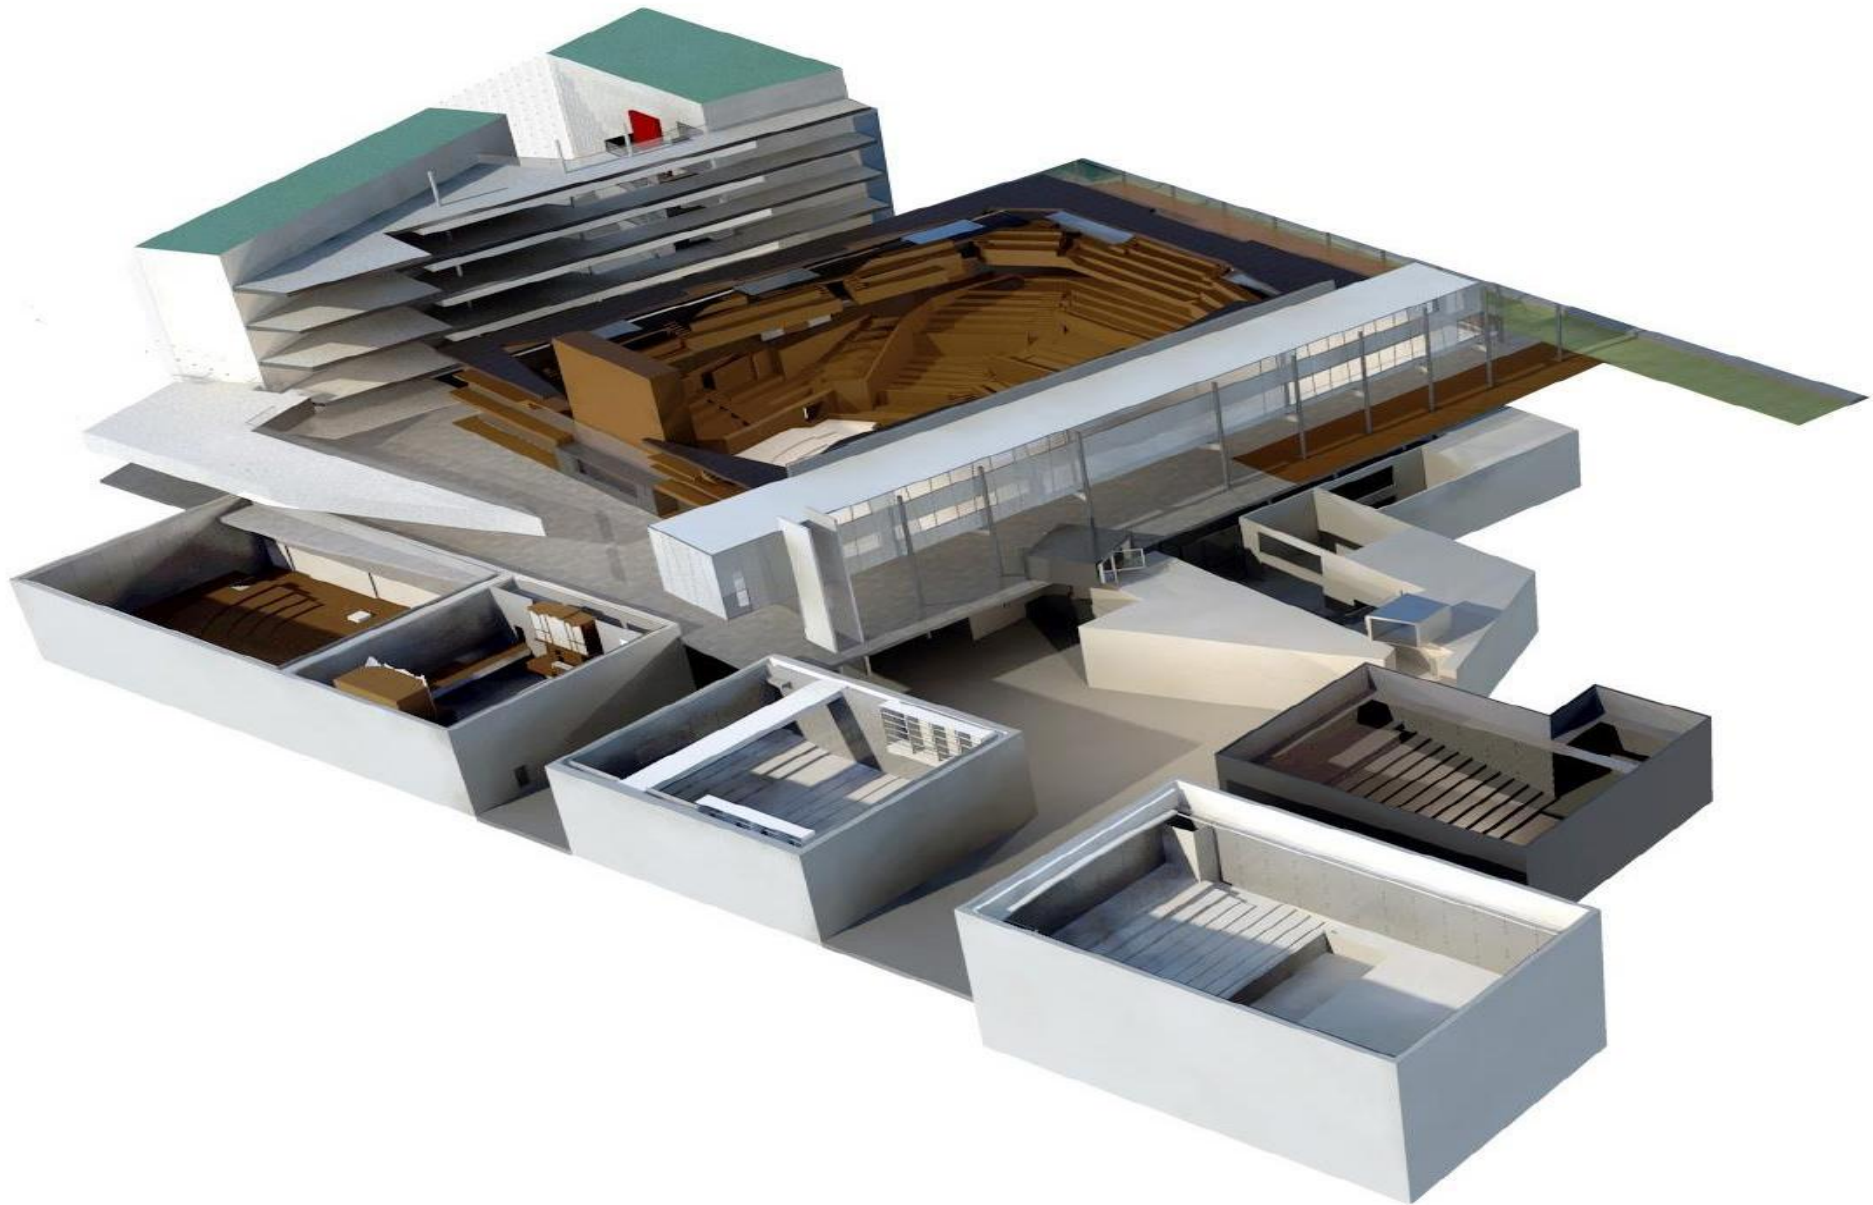

The residents of the Musiikkitalo are

- × The Helsinki Philharmonic Orchestra
- × The Finnish Radio Symphony Orchestra and
- × The Sibelius Academy

- × Opened August 2011

R-building, Pohjoinen Rautatiekatu

- × “The Old Academy”
- × 1930 by Architect Eino Forsman
- × Concert Hall 650 seats
- × Now in the use of Parliament until 2018

N-building, Nervanderinkatu 13

- × Built in 1930's
- × Architect Väinö Vähäkallio
- × Renovated for SibA
- × Opened 2014
- × Mainly classrooms and office spaces
- × International Office

T-building, Töölönkatu 28

- × In use until 2018
- × Architect Väinö Vähäkallio in 1931
- × Classroom
- × Offices
- × Two small halls

Sibelius-Akatemia

Taideyliopiston Sibelius-Akatemian toimipisteet

PS HS, Karttakeskus

Kallio-Kuninkala

- * Course centre in Järvenpää
- * Appr 45 min. drive from the city centre

Sibelius Academy

Sibelius Academy was established in 1882 and named after Jean Sibelius (1865-1957) in 1939.

Sibelius Academy is the only university-level music academy in Finland and one of the largest in Europe.

It is part of the University of the Arts Helsinki since 1st January, 2013.

Facts and figures

- Among the most prestigious music academies in the world
 - 7th in the QS World University Ranking (Performing Arts)
- Home to 1 500 students and over 1 000 faculty members
- Turnover of 25 M€
- Funding mainly from the Finnish Government
- Internationally active → 120 exchange partner institutions
- No tuition fees for EU/EEA students
- From autumn 2017 onwards non- EU/EEA degree students will be required to pay an annual tuition fee of 5000 euro. Scholarship system will be introduced.

Sibelius Academy's objectives BRIDGES THROUGH MUSIC

Requisites, mission and objectives

REQUISITES

- × Best students and teachers
- × Trust-based culture and interaction
- × Well-functioning organisation

MISSION

- × Quality education
- × Meaningful research
- × Quality and diversity in artistic activity
- × Active learning environment
- × Innovative co-operation

OBJECTIVES

- × World-class artists and versatile professionals
- × Internationally leading music academy
- × Institution with significant societal impact
- × Key influence in the development of higher music education

Visions for the Future

The Sibelius Academy has ambitious plans to enhance its programs and creative atmosphere to strengthen its reputation as a world-class center for academic and artistic excellence.

With the help of our international and highly qualified staff, we attract the best students from Finland and from abroad.

The Academy will build on its enviable reputation in the development of music education and pedagogy.

Our goal is to educate artists, teachers and other music professionals, who are fully equipped to meet the demands of the ever-changing arts sector.

International activities

- ✦ Part of the strategy and in mission and vision statements
- ✦ Why?
- ✦ Institutional and individual approach
- ✦ Strategic partnerships – not only Erasmus activity
- ✦ Joint Nordic Study programs
 - Nordic Folk NoFo
 - Nordic Master in Jazz, NOMAZZ
 - Nordic Master in Global Music, GLOMAS
- Global and social responsibility, e.g. GLOMUS network
- Active participation in networks
- Individual Mobility
- International Learning Environment

Cooperation agreements

- × Policy concerning exchanges in Erasmus and Nordplus:
 - × Everyone can apply
 - × Best students will be accepted
 - × Agreements made, when needed
- × Erasmus Agreements in Europe in 2016: 115
- × Other agreements: 30

Incoming and Outgoing 2016-2017

- * Incoming applications 205
- * Approximately 50% accepted
- * Offered a study place for 105
- * 76 accepted a study place

- * Outgoing applicants 80
- * Applied min. for three institutions, which means that there were approximately 250 applications
- * Exchanges approximately 56-58
- * Most popular destinations this year:
 - * Amsterdam
 - * Berlin
 - * London
 - * Paris
 - * Vienna
 - * New York

THANK YOU